

Press release: New strategic licensing for developers in Cheshire to better protect great crested newts

An innovative approach by Natural England to protect great crested newts and encourage sustainable development is launched today (28 March) in Cheshire.