

Press release: New Trade and Agriculture Commission launched with measures to boost farming exports

Ministers respond to recommendations from original Commission, making commitments on animal welfare and tackling antimicrobial resistance in trade agreements.