

Press release: New UK border campaign warns of threat of African swine fever

Defra announces new poster campaign warning holidaymakers of the risks around bringing contaminated pork products into the UK.