

Press release: North East man fined for waste offences

A North East man has been fined after pleading guilty to four offences, including breaching an environmental permit and obstruction.