

Press release: Plans unveiled to ban single-use plastics

Single-use cutlery and plates could be banned in England as part of a public consultation, and call for evidence launched to tackle other problematic plastics