

Press release: PM meeting with European Commission President: 27 April 2017

The PM had a constructive meeting this evening with President Juncker of the European Commission.

Following the UK's letter of notification under Article 50, she reiterated the UK's commitment to achieving a deep and special partnership with the European Union.

The PM and President Juncker also discussed a range of other international issues in a useful working dinner.