

Press release: Proposals for consumer protections when companies collapse unveiled

Government to consider new laws to protect consumers who have prepaid for products when a business becomes insolvent.