

Press release: Public urged not to take dangerous risks as Storm Diana hits Britain

As Storm Diana hits Britain, the Environment Agency and National Fire Chiefs Council are urging the public to avoid life-endangering risks such as driving through flood water, taking 'storm selfies' and wave watching, which put themselves and rescue services in extreme danger.