

Press release: Reforms proposed to put consumers at the heart of UK competition regime

A major package of proposals to bolster competition and put consumers even more directly at the heart of the CMA's work has today been published.