

Press release: Reforms to flood funding and investment to protect farming communities

£50 million investment into internal drainage boards and plans to consult on new strategic vision for floods investment