

Press release: Repeat offender double glazing boss disqualified for 11 years

Court bans Telford-based double glazing director for a further 11 years after running a company while already disqualified