

Press release: Restrictions on sale of coal and wet wood for home burning begin

Sales of coal and wet wood for household burning are being phased out to cut harmful pollution to human health