

Press release: Rory Stewart comments on IDC report into use of UK aid to tackle climate change

Statement from the Secretary of State for International Development on the publication of Commons International Development Committee report.