

Press release: Royal Navy's new offshore patrol vessel named HMS Tamar

HMS Tamar, which is part of a five-strong OPV contract with BAE Systems, worth a combined £635m, was formally named in Glasgow today.