

Press release: Science Minister announces funding for cyber security and screen entertainment projects in Bristol

Chris Skidmore announces that projects in the South West focusing on cyber security, screen entertainment and environmental science will receive up to £50,000 government funding.