

Press release: Seven year framework for Government and public sector development projects launched

A new funding framework has been developed to allow construction firms, small and large, the chance to bid for work on government projects over the next seven years.