

Press release: Tech and innovation drive to boost food production and back British farmers

Government food strategy will back our farmers by helping to increase domestic production, spread jobs and grow the economy.