

Press release: Teething gels for babies and children to be sold in pharmacies only

Parents and caregivers are being advised products containing lidocaine used for teething in babies and children will be sold only in pharmacies from 2019.