

Press release: Thousands of fish released into North East rivers

The Environment Agency has released thousands of fish to give stocks a boost and encourage people to go fishing.