

Press release: Thousands to benefit from new English language programmes

Councils, charities and adult learning providers to receive a share of funding which will help adults with their English language skills.