

Press release: Three new general licences announced

Three new general licences for the killing or taking of wild birds in England will be issued on Friday 14 June.