

Press release: Trade remedies measures to protect UK businesses and cut prices

The International Trade Secretary has today set out which current EU trade remedy measures the UK will transition when we leave the European Union.