

Press release: UK firms help Iraqi citizens access electricity with support from UK Government

UK Export Finance (UKEF) announced it will support UK firms with US $1.02 billion to build two new power stations in Iraq and support the restoration of a number of electricity substations in the country.