

Press release: UK Government urges countries to agree a deal for nature as UN Convention of Biological Diversity gets underway

The United Kingdom Government is set to lead a coalition of high ambition countries in crucial UN talks with the aim of halting species extinctions and biodiversity loss