

Press release: UK leads the way on agricultural innovation at Washington D.C. Climate Summit

£3 million invested in the Global Fertiliser Challenge to fund new research to develop alternative fertilisers to boost sustainability and productivity