

Press release: UK signs agreement with ICES demonstrating commitment to international marine science collaboration

The government has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the International Council of the Exploration of the Sea