

Press release: UK to invest up to £30m through partnership with African Union

Minister of State for Africa Harriett Baldwin has announced a funding package for projects across Africa following the signing of a new strategic partnership