

Press release: Unscrupulous East London health supplements company shut down

Unscrupulous East London health supplements company that secured £128,000 from elderly and vulnerable customers has been shut down by the courts.