

Press release: Update on investigation into the deaths of crabs and lobster in the North East

Results of investigation point to a naturally occurring harmful algal bloom being the cause.