

Press release: Wages beat inflation for 15th month in a row with record employment in April

UK workers have enjoyed an unbroken period of real-terms wage growth since February 2018, new figures today show – real total pay growing by 1.2% in the last year.