

Press release: Wales' creative industries to benefit from major new research investment

The screen and broadcast industries in Cardiff are set to receive significant funding