

Press release: Waste boss banned for breaching environmental legislation

Swindon boss disqualified from running limited companies for six years after he caused two waste companies to breach environmental regulations.