Press release: Water bill compensation to double for poor customer service

The government has today launched a consultation to double reimbursement for water company customers when their basic water services are hit.