

Press release: Welsh projects given the green light to develop the latest battery technology for electric vehicles

£1.4 million of UK Government funding allocated to battery projects across Wales.