

Press release: Work on water protection scheme at Lynemouth nearing completion

Construction work on the second phase of a £4 million scheme geared to protecting millions of litres of drinking water in the north east is nearing completion.