

Press release: World-leading new law to protect rainforests and clean up supply chains

Legislation would make it illegal for larger businesses to use products unless they comply with local laws to protect natural areas.