

Press Releases: Acting Assistant Secretary Judith G. Garber To Travel to Belgium and Botswana

Media Note
Office of the Spokesperson

Washington, DC
June 5, 2017

Acting Assistant Secretary of State for the Bureau of Oceans and International Environmental and Scientific Affairs Judith G. Garber will travel to Brussels, Belgium from June 5-7 to meet with European officials to discuss wildlife trafficking, ocean issues, health security, and scientific collaboration.

Acting Assistant Secretary Garber will then travel to Gaborone, Botswana from June 7-10. During her time in Botswana, she will meet with government officials and representatives from NGOs and other organizations to engage on wildlife trafficking, sustainable fisheries, public health, water, and advancing education and research in science and technology.

For further information, contact Yoon Nam (NamYS@state.gov).

The Office of Website Management, Bureau of Public Affairs, manages this site as a portal for information from the U.S. State Department. External links to other Internet sites should not be construed as an endorsement of the views or privacy policies contained therein.