

Press Releases: Cuba Internet Task Force Second Public Meeting

Media Note
Office of the Spokesperson

Washington, DC
November 29, 2018

---

The Cuba Internet Task Force will hold its second public meeting on Thursday, December 6, 2018, at the Harry S. Truman Building, 2201 C Street NW, Room 1107. The Task Force, a Department of State-sponsored advisory body composed of U.S. government and non-government representatives, aims to promote the free and unregulated flow of information into and within Cuba in accordance with the June 16, 2017 National Security Presidential Memorandum-5 "Strengthening the Policy of the United States Toward Cuba." The Task Force examines the technological challenges and opportunities for expanding internet access and independent media in Cuba.

The Department hosted the Task Force's first public meeting on February 7, 2018. Information for those wishing to attend the December 6, 2018 meeting is available in the Federal Register Notice published November 20, 2018.

The Office of Website Management, Bureau of Public Affairs, manages this site as a portal for information from the U.S. State Department. External links to other Internet sites should not be construed as an endorsement of the views or privacy policies contained therein.