

Press Releases: Houthi Missile Launch Against Riyadh

Press Statement
Heather Nauert

Department Spokesperson

Washington, DC
June 25, 2018

The United States strongly condemns yesterday's Houthi missile launch directed at Riyadh. These actions only exacerbate the conflict in Yemen and deepen mistrust. We stand firmly with our Saudi partners in defending their borders against these continued threats. We continue to urge all parties to work with UN Special Envoy Martin Griffiths toward a political settlement and an end to the conflict in Yemen.
