

Press Releases: United States Welcomes Mandate for New Government in Macedonia

Press Statement
Heather Nauert

Department Spokesperson

Washington, DC
May 18, 2017

The United States welcomes the decision of Macedonian President Gjorge Ivanov to give the mandate to form a government to Mr. Zoran Zaev. This decision represents an important step forward for Macedonian democracy and the people of Macedonia.

We look forward to working with the new government to tackle the myriad challenges facing Macedonia, including the need for democratic reforms and full implementation of the Przino agreement. The United States remains Macedonia's friend and partner, and we are committed to supporting its European and Euro-Atlantic future.

The Office of Website Management, Bureau of Public Affairs, manages this site as a portal for information from the U.S. State Department. External links to other Internet sites should not be construed as an endorsement of the views or privacy policies contained therein.