

Prime Minister announces multi-million pound boost for grassroots cricket

Prime Minister Rishi Sunak has announced investment of £35 million in grassroots cricket facilities and widening access to the sport within state schools, in the latest move by the Government to get one million more young pe...