

Prime Minister orders urgent action to improve vaccination uptake

Prime Minister Boris Johnson orders urgent action to improve vaccination uptake after more than 230 cases of measles were reported in the UK during first quarter of 2019