

Prime Minister to drive forward UK growth as he meets world's leading economic powers at G20

The Prime Minister will use his trip to the G20 in Brazil this week to strengthen ties with the world's leading economic powers to drive growth and deliver for the British people at home.