

Prime Minister urges countries to make bold compromises and ambitious commitments in final week of COP26

Prime Minister Boris Johnson is urging countries to keep up the momentum on the fight against climate change in the week ahead at the COP26 summit.