

Prize spurs youth green drive

The Young Green Leader Award was launched in 2018 to commend young employees for their environmental achievements and motivate the community to do more for the environment.

News.gov.hk spoke to the winner of the inaugural prize to learn about how she is leading the green charge by classifying recyclable plastics in construction waste.

The story appears on news.gov.hk today (June 2) in both text and video format.