

Professorship for Animal Welfare Expert who Begins by Asking Them the Questions

Marie Haskell, a respected animal welfare expert who focuses on what animals tell her about what suits them, has been awarded a Professorship.