

Promotional material: Breast screening: high risk women

This document explains the NHS breast screening programme for women defined as being at high risk of breast cancer.