

Proposals to increase fishing licence prices

The Environment Agency has announced proposals to increase fishing licence prices to provide vital funds to improve England's fisheries