

Proprietor fined for violation of safety legislation

Mee Ngai Chu Kee Door Factory Limited was fined $130,000 at Fanling Magistrates' Courts today (March 25) for violations of the Factories and Industrial Undertakings Ordinance and the Factories and Industrial Undertakings Regulations. The prosecution was launched by the Labour Department.

The case involved a fatal accident that occurred on April 16, 2024, on a public road outside the entrance of a warehouse in Yuen Long. While a worker was pulling out a pallet of goods from the compartment of a truck to its tail lift, he fell from the tail lift to the ground. He sustained serious head injuries and passed away three days later.
