

Protection zones around abortion clinics in place by October

Safe access buffer zones will be in force around abortion clinics from 31 October to bring in stronger safeguards for women accessing services.